

I am very pleased with New Jersey's 'do not call' law. It should not be overridden even though it may be stricter than Federal law. I like my privacy. That is a right for citizens of this great nation -- the pursuit of happiness not interfered with by annoying telephone calls.